OLDEST COPY OF OLD TESTAMENT DISCOVERED!!

How the scrolls were The young boy was found

An important discovery was made yesterday a young shepherd boy and his cousin found pottery jars in caves at Qumran near the Dead Sea in Israel. The jars contained 500 scrolls believed to be the oldest copy of the Old Testame nt in existence.

searching for one of his goats; thinking it had gone into a cave he threw a stone in and heard a smash, he ran and got his older cousin when they returned they found the jars and immediately called the police. Scientists believe the scrolls are about 2,000 years old, the boys have been rewarded

A Smart learner will write the story of how the Dead Sea Scrolls were found

Jesus was going from town to town performing miracles and everyone wanted to see Him.

People were excited whenever they heard that Jesus was in their area because they either wanted to see a miracle or be the one who was healed.

So, as Jesus entered one of the homes in Capernaum, people quickly gathered around Him. So many people came that there was no room left, not even outside the door.

There were four men who heard that Jesus was in town who decided to carry their paralyzed friend on a mat to Him, to see if their friend could be healed. As soon as they got to the house where Jesus was, they realized that they wouldn't be able to get through to see Him.

I'm thinking that the man they were carrying was getting pretty heavy and was desperate to see Jesus. They didn't know how long Jesus would be in town so they had to see Him today!

Someone decided to take him to the roof of the house that Jesus was at! The roof wasn't made with large pieces of wood, but had tiles or plaster that could be lifted or broken through easily to make a hole. After digging through the roof, the men lowered the mat that the paralyzed man was lying on down to where Jesus was.

I'm sure Jesus was smiling as the man was being lowered down. These men were so sure that Jesus would be able to heal him; otherwise they wouldn't have gone to so much trouble.

The first thing Jesus said when He saw that they believed was, "Son, your sins are forgiven." Probably not what the man expected since he came to Jesus because he wanted to walk.

However, Jesus knew what this man needed most because he knew what was in his heart. Jesus knew that being paralyzed would be difficult but it was even worse not to be forgiven.

Well, some of the teachers of the law heard Jesus forgive the man and they began thinking, "How dare this man forgive sins, only God can do that."

Immediately Jesus knew what they were thinking and said to them, "Why are you thinking these things?" This probably startled the men because Jesus knew what they were thinking!

Jesus also asked them, "Which was easier: to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take your mat and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins."

This might be a bit hard to understand but I think Jesus was trying to get through to the teachers of the law and tell them that He was the Son of Man, and God has given Him the power to forgive sins and heal people. These things could not be done by just a regular person but only by God.

Then, before He was finished Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home."

The Bible says that the man got up, took his mat and walked out in full view of them all. I'm thinking he thanked Jesus and maybe even gave him a big hug! He could've laughed and maybe did a little dance on his way out. He probably didn't go straight home either...what a day that would've been for him and his friends!

The crowd was very amazed and they praised God saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

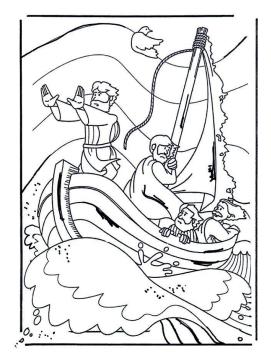

If you are a Smart learner: When you think you know the paralysed man story, try and write it as if you are a newspaper reporter who was watching what happened

Jesus and Zacchaeus the Tax Collector Mark 19:1-10

19 Jesus entered the town of Jericho and was passing through. ² A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy but also very, very greedy He took more taxes than he was supposed to . ³ He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was short he could not see over the crowd. ⁴ So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.

⁵ When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." ⁶ So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

⁷ All the people were annoyed by this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a sinner." Because that's what they believed Zacchaeus was

⁸ But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."

⁹ Jesus said to Zacchaeus, "Zacchaeus because of this your sins will be forgiven, no one in Jericho should judge you any more as being selfish and greedy."
