

Celebrating Individuality and Diversity”

The school has grown rapidly over the last decade since transformation to integrated status and the enrolment currently stands at 350 children P1-P7 and a further 50 pre-school community playgroup children. The whole school wraparound care service has been very attractive to families in the community.

Glengormley Integrated Primary believe differences are respected, diversity is a resource and our mutual cultural heritage is celebrated.

